

A Marriage Blessing

for Jeni and Rob

Words from traditional Celtic texts

Kathryn Rose

Freely

May the bles-sing of light be on you light with-out and light with-in. May the bles-sed sun-light shine on you and warm your hearts like a great peat fire. May the bles-sing of the rains be on you; may they sweep— soft-ly a-cross your fields. May the gen-tle rains beat up-on your spi-rit and wash it fair and clean, and leave there a shi-ning pool where the blue of Hea-ven shines. May the bles-sing of the earth be on you, soft un-der your feet as you pass a-long the roads. May ev'-ry good seed you have plan-ted bear fruit, and late sum-mer find you stan-ding in fields of plen-ty. May the bles-sing of light be on you, May the bles-sing of rains be on you, May the bles-sing of the earth be on you, and may the kind— smile of God light you to glo-ry.
